

Click the QR code above for pre-film audio introduction.

There is a short audio introduction for each film for blind and partially sighted viewers. It describes key visual details to help set the scene before the film begins.